Beds and pack and plays provided for placement stability

Suncoast Voices provided beds and bedding for a family that was receiving services due to domestic violence. The mother had been working with CASA and secured housing for herself and her children. However, she had no furniture and couldn't afford essentials like beds for her kids ages 12, 2 and 3 months.

"Thanks to the OP program, I was able to save $3,000, which was generously matched allowing me to put purchase a reliable vehicle. Owning a car has completely transformed my daily life. It has given me the freedom to get to work, attend appointments, and manage my responsibilities without the constant stress of unreliable transportation." - Lucan
